| | I regret that I had to leave without seeing you, but I was recelled very hurriedly and was not quite sure just when you would come in. Since I am in Washington, I shall take up some of the points we discussed and shall advise you through In case you have any more information, you can send it and I shall be delighted STAT to receive it. |
| | If I get to again, I shall certainly make every effort to see you, and, if you come to Washington, I wish you would be sure to advise me. With best wishes, believe me, |
| | Sincerely, STAT |
